

A record-breaking year was had at the Parent Petroleum 19th Annual Golf Classic
Fueling Research to Cure Blindness

The 19th Annual Parent Petroleum Golf Classic produced a record-breaking turnout leading to Parent's largest fundraising event to date! Held at the Historic St. Andrews Golf & Country Club in West Chicago, IL, the thirty-six hole course with contoured greens provided an inspiring setting for a great day of golf. Guests were encouraged to visit the Lagunita's Beer Tent to sample a variety of locally crafted beer. The afternoon was capped off with a delightful dinner reception, which included raffle drawings, a silent auction and the presentation of awards. This year's Celebrity guest's former Bears defensive end Ed O'Bradovich, and the 1985 Bears Super bowl defensive tackle Steve McMichael hosted a fun-filled hour of Bears talk. The all-day event rose well over $100,000 to help support Dr. Michael Grassi and his team of scientists at the Eye and Ear Infirmary of U.I.C. A highly motivated organization who is dedicated to finding cures for blindness through scientific research. A special thanks goes to Ann Rasch, the Greater Chicago Community of Search for Vision, BP, Castrol, the Motor Werks of Barrington and all of our Parent Petroleum, suppliers, customers and friends who helped raise funds for this worthy cause.
